

Basic Code of Conduct

Claremont Graduate University is committed to maintaining a community and environment that promotes our educational mission of preparing a diverse group of outstanding individuals to assume leadership roles in the worldwide community through research, teaching, and practice in selected fields. Students, faculty, and staff are expected to respect the person and property of all constituents, and the educational and administrative processes and policies of Claremont Graduate University and The Claremont Colleges.

Violation of this basic code of conduct on the property of any of The Claremont Colleges or the Claremont University Consortium constitutes an offense against Claremont Graduate University and may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.