

QUESTIONS TO ADDRESS IN PROPOSING NEW DEGREES OR PROGRAMS

1. What would be the status of the proposed degree in the program? Who are the faculty available to teach the necessary courses and advise students?
2. Elaborate details of how courses and advising would be put into effect.
3. What are the departmental resources available to assign to the new degree or program? What additional resources, if any, are needed?
4. Outline plans for scheduling courses.
5. Provide strategic planning considerations, if any.
6. Describe competitive programs regionally and in the United States.
7. Define potential student interest in the proposed degrees or programs.