

Does the Office of Career Management offer career services to CGU alumni?

Yes. Alumni are welcome to attend our on-campus career workshops and information sessions. We also encourage alumni who are considering a career transition or would like other career-related consulting to work with our career consultants on an individual basis.

Please note that use of on-campus interviewing and recruiting activities are limited to current students.